MILES SCHOLARSHIPS TOTALING $4,475
GO TO 11 UM STUDENTS FROM HELENA AREA

MISSOULA--

Scholarships totaling $4,475 under the Lulu L. Miles Scholarship Program have been awarded to 11 students from the Helena area who are attending the University of Montana in Missoula.

The awards, endowed since October 1971 from the estate of the late Mrs. Miles, are from the interest on the principal held by Northwestern Bank and Union Trust Co. in the Capital City, according to W. R. Miles Jr., Helena, executor of the estate, who is Mrs. Miles' surviving stepson.

Mrs. Miles, a native of New York City and a Helena resident many years, bequeathed $60,758 to the University to set up the scholarship program for graduates of Helena high schools who attend school at UM. The funds are administered through the UM Foundation.

Donald L. McDaniel, scholarship and grants officer for the UM Financial Aids Office, released the names of the scholarship recipients. The award winners for 1975-76 include David F. Hiltner of East Helena, who received a $250 award. Those from Helena receiving the Miles Scholarships are:

Polly Jeanne Young, $1,225; William J. Lannan, Gerald J. Spangrude and Robert N. Storey, $500 each; and William C. Connor Jr., Richard F. Ecke, Karen Sue Hodgson, Patricia Mae Ingram, James N. Leik and Trudi Janelle Mathews, $250 each.

Connor, a graduate of the former Cathedral High School in Helena, is the only one of the scholarship recipients who did not attend Helena High School.
